

The George A.C. Christiancy Residence is an excellent example of the 1920s Spanish Colonial Revival architecture. This work represents the work of architect Lillian Rice who was the only licensed female architect in San Diego County at the time.